“The common themes surrounding our finalists for the Athlete of the Year Awards are hard work and dedication. These athletes have shown a commitment to sport, and the result of this can be seen in their accomplishments at the regional, national and international levels,” said Tavia Laliberte, Chair of Sask Sport Inc. “I would like to congratulate the Athlete of the Year award finalists for their outstanding achievements, for serving as role models, and for inspiring people of every age across our province to pursue their goals and dreams, and to do their best. Thanks, as well, to the support system that has helped these athletes flourish, including provincial and community sport organizations, administrators, coaches, officials, volunteers and parents. Sport is more than a game and we are #saskproud of these outstanding athletes!”

The 2016 award recipients, chosen from the Athlete of the Year finalists, along with the 2016 Volunteer, Coach of the Year, Male Dedication Coach, Female Dedication Coach, Male Official, and Female Official award recipients, will be announced in March, and the awards will be presented to all recipients at the Saskatchewan Sport Awards ceremony being held March 23 in Saskatoon

The Saskatchewan Sport Awards is an annual awards program of Sask Sport Inc. designed to celebrate and promote the outstanding achievements of Saskatchewan amateur athletes, coaches, officials and volunteers.
