Some of his athletes’ 2011 accomplishments include: gold and a Canada West shot put record (Andrew Smith) at the Canada West Championships; gold medals and shot put records (by both Andrew Smith and Taryn Suttie) at the CIS Championships; silver in discus (Nolan Machiskinic) at the Saskatchewan Provincial Championships; two bronze medals in shot put at the National Senior Championships in Calgary; and a silver medal in weight throw and bronze medals in javelin, weight pentathlon, and hammer throw (Marg Tosh) at the World Masters Championships in Sacramento, California. Aside from coaching, Bertoia also serves on the Saskatoon Hub City Council for indoor and outdoor track venues and was the Saskatoon Track and Field Club’s Meet Director for various Saskatchewan Athletics competitions in 2011.

Rob Cherepuschak • Pilot Butte

Nominated by Saskatchewan Baseball

Rob Cherepuschak was the head coach of the Regina Red Sox in the Western Major Baseball League (WMBL). With his team, he won the President’s Cup for finishing first overall in the regular season, and set a WMBL regular season record for the league’s best winning percentage. They swept both the Weyburn Beavers and the Moose Jaw Miller Express, and later captured the franchise’s first WMBL Championship by defeating the Okotoks Dawgs at the Seamen’s Stadium in Okotoks, Alberta. Rob Cherepuschak was also named Saskatchewan Baseball’s Coach of the Year and WMBL Manager of the Year in 2011. Rob is also a trained NCCP Learning Facilitator for Saskatchewan Baseball coaching clinics. Rob is not only an outstanding coach but truly believes in the development in the whole person through sport.

Maureen Johnson • ReginaNominated by Saskatchewan Baton Twirling Association

For the past 59 years, Maureen Johnson has coached baton twirling in Saskatchewan. Her dedication and commitment to the sport has allowed her athletes to achieve significant success at the national and international levels. In 2011, her athletes captured 70 medals, including 28 gold, at the national level, where her team's gold medals accounted for 34 per cent of the total gold medals awarded at this level. Her athletes also captured four gold, one silver and five bronze medals at the International Cup in Jacksonville, Florida, which featured competitors from 16 different countries. In addition to this strong awards total, 16 of Johnson's elite athletes filled the majority of the spots available on the International Cup's Canadian Team. Johnson is the head coach of the Sundown Optimist Buffalo Gals club in Regina, and she is currently working with the World Baton Twirling Federation as Canada's representative to develop a new international judging system for the sport. Due to her strong leadership skills and love for the sport, many of Johnson's athletes go on to become baton twirling coaches and judges after they finish competing.

Wayne Mitchell • YorktonNominated by Saskatchewan WTF Taekwondo Association

Wayne Mitchell is the Master Instructor at the Kees Taekwondo School in Yorkton, and he has been teaching taekwondo since 1980. His athletes were very successful in 2011, earning six gold medals at the 2011 Canadian National Taekwondo Championships in Winnipeg. Of the 15 Team Saskatchewan spots available for this event, 13 were members of Mitchell's taekwondo school. As a result of this event, Autumn Ashcroft earned a position on the Senior National Team and went on to compete at the World Championships in Korea, and Francis Bazin earned a berth into the Junior National Team Trials in Toronto, where he secured a spot on Canada's Junior Team. Bazin later won a bronze medal at the 2011 Pan-Am Junior Championships in Las Vegas.
