

Organization: Regina Community Basketball Association

Job Title: Referee in Chief

Job Description:

The Regina Community Basketball Association (RCBA) is inviting applications for the position of Referee in Chief. Founded in 1931, the RCBA is a not-for-profit, community oriented league that delivers basketball programs based on the principles of fun, fair play and development, and currently maintains membership of nearly 1600 players in the Regina area.

Reporting to the Board of Directors and Executive Director, the Referee in Chief supports the Executive Director in managing the recruitment, training, and development of the leagues officials. Essential responsibilities include; development and oversight of training clinics, yearly exam, and mentorship and evaluation program and protocols. You will work in partnership with the referee assignor to ensure they have the correct information for referee bookings. The position will also act as a liaison between our organization and RABO.

As a preferred candidate, you will have a thorough understanding of all current FIBA rules. This position will appeal to those with strong organizational and interpersonal skills as well as leadership and communication abilities for educational purposes.

This part time, contract position will require approximately 5 hours of work per week during our leagues fall/winter season which runs from October-March, as well as the ability to commit to strategic planning sessions in the spring and quarterly board of directors meetings. A portion of the weekly in season time commitment will be expected to be in gym overseeing referee development.

The RCBA thanks all who apply, however only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

Application Process: To apply, please submit resume and cover letter to rcbaadmin@sasktel.net
